IRISH REBELLION. Handbills Distributed Urging an Uprising. stration held here to-day John E. Redmond, leader of the United Irish party in Parliament, made a vigorous appeal for funds to ssist the candidates of the party at the forthcoming general election. He publicly repudiated the statement that the United Irish League was opposed to certain Irish Irish League was opposed to certain frish members.

William O'Brien and others spoke.

During the meeting handbills were distributed discouraging the work of recruiting for the British army and urging that, as England's army was now discomfited in South Africa, the time was ripe for an Irish
